

WHM Capital Advisors Working with Client Post-Transaction

For Immediate Release

Columbia, SC - WHM Capital Advisors is pleased to have advised Copac, Inc. on business transition strategies. Our Copac client has recently successfully completed the earn-out phase of the transaction and WHM Capital Advisors congratulates this client.

In addition, our firm is grateful for the opportunity to continue to advise this family on wealth management issues following the transaction.

WHM Capital Advisors is a financial advisory firm providing research, analysis and advice to a diversified global client base that includes institutions, corporations and high net worth individuals. Founded in 2002, the firm's areas of expertise are in valuation consulting, succession planning, mergers and acquisitions advice and investment management. In addition, the firm has a related technology company that designs applications to analyze complex financial issues for clients.

Developers of:

