

D'Alberto Joins WHM Capital Advisors as Managing Director

For Immediate Release:

Columbia, SC - WHM Capital Advisors is pleased to announce that Daniel R. D'Alberto has joined the firm as Managing Director.

Prior to joining WHM Capital Advisors, Dan was an Attorney at Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough LLP in Columbia, SC. He brings with him a wide array of experience and skills advising businesses in complex issues involving intellectual property, banking, and securities. Dan has also assisted in advising public and private companies and their officers and directors on a broad range of issues regarding corporate risk management strategies.

"Dan brings a unique set of skills to the firm and we are enthusiastic about his role in expanding our work in advising corporate entities and their stakeholders on capital markets issues," said Bill McAfee, President of WHM Capital Advisors. "We are sure that Dan will be an invaluable asset to our company and our clients."

Dan will be serving in the Columbia, South Carolina office and will be working specifically on solutions for banks, hospitals, and other publicly- and privately-held corporate entities.
